United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law: Urgent Appeal for voluntary contributions by the Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs

The United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law (AVL) is a unique multi-media resource and key instrument for promoting a greater understanding of the essential role of the United Nations in the field of international law. It consists of a permanent collection of scholarly lectures, historic archives of significant international law instruments and an online legal research library providing extensive international law research materials. Since its launch on 28 October 2008, the Audiovisual Library has been accessed by almost one million users in all 193 Member States of the United Nations.

The United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law is dependent on voluntary contributions. The Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs and the Codification Division are seeking voluntary contributions from Member States to support the continuation and further development of the Audiovisual Library in 2014.

The Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs and the Codification Division of the Office of Legal Affairs, wish to express their appreciation to the four Member States that have made voluntary contributions to support the AVL in 2014, namely, China, Ireland, Mexico and the United Kingdom.

For additional information or inquiries, please contact Ms. Virginia Morris, Principal Legal Officer, Codification Division, Office of Legal Affairs (e-mail morrisv@un.org).

7297th meeting

Election of five members of the International Court of Justice (S/2014/520, S/2014/521 and S/2014/522)

The agenda was adopted without objection.

The Security Council proceeded to the election of five members of the International Court of Justice, in accordance with the relevant articles of the Statute of the Court, to fill five seats that would become vacant upon the expiry of the term of office of five judges on 5 February 2015.

The President of the Council informed the members of the Security Council that he had received information about additional nominations from several national groups.

The President of the Council informed the members of the Security Council that he received information about the withdrawal of the nomination of one candidate.

The delegations of Chad and Chile were selected, by the drawing of lots by the President, to serve as tellers.

After the first, second and third round of ballots, six candidates received the required absolute majority of votes in the Security Council.

In the fourth ballot, five candidates obtained the required absolute majority of votes in the Security Council.

The meeting was suspended.

Upon the resumption of the meeting, the President of the Council informed the members that he had communicated the results of the voting in writing to the President of the General Assembly.

The President of the Council read out the text of a letter he had received from the President of the General Assembly, communicating the result of the voting held at the 39th plenary meeting of the General Assembly.

Having received the required absolute majority of votes both in the Security Council and in the General Assembly, Mr. Mohamed Bennouna (Morocco), Mr. James Richard Crawford (Australia), Ms. Joan E. Donoghue (United States of America) and Mr. Kirill Gevorgian (Russian Federation), were elected as members of the International Court of Justice for a term of office beginning on 6 February 2015.

The President of the Council informed the members of the Security Council that he had received information from the President of the General Assembly about the withdrawal of the nominations.

The President of the Council, with the consent of the Council, stated that, due to the lateness of the hour, the Council balloting would continue at a later date to be announced.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered. Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Room Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; room S-0220).

In addition, a hotline number for updates during weather emergencies or other urgent situations can be accessed by calling 1 (212) 963-9800.

Let United Nations documents come to you: eSubscription

A simple and fast alternate way to access United Nations parliamentary documents electronically is available through the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management's eSubscription service at www.undocs.org. Based on RSS feeds (Really Simple Syndication), the latest edition of the Journal and parliamentary documents issued daily at Headquarters can be accessed readily on a computer or hand-held smart device.

Sign-up is free and easy by visiting the eSubscription page at www.undocs.org. An overview of all documents with the options "e-mail" or "RSS" next to each document category is located there. After sign-up, documents will be sent to the subscriber via e-mail as soon as they are made available. Comments, questions and suggestions are invited to be sent to help-desk@un.org.

Touch screen information kiosks

The Department for General Assembly and Conference Management (DGACM) invites delegations and staff to use the two touch screen information kiosks located in the North Lawn Building to access the official meeting schedule, the Journal of the United Nations, the Delegates' Handbook, the Blue Book and the United Nations Staff Yellow Pages, as well as Headquarters and Conference Room Maps. These easy to use kiosks are located on the ground floor just after the First Avenue entrance security checkpoint and on the second floor next to the Café. DGACM welcomes feedback, questions or comments pertaining to the information kiosks, which can be addressed to help-desk@un.org.
